

How God Meets You Halfway

Easter 2007, April 7-8

It was a road very much like the one you walk on everyday that two followers of Jesus found themselves on that very first Easter, not as far from God as they had supposed. Today we will discover how each of us walk our own pathway in life and how God wants to be part of your life journey.

“Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; but they were kept from recognizing him.”
Luke 24:13-16

“But we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel...”
Luke 24:21

“...Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?”
Luke 24:32

“As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus acted as if he were going farther. But they urged him strongly, ‘Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over.’ So he went in to stay with them.”
Luke 24:28-29

“When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him ...”
Luke 24:30

Paul: “I pray that you will begin to understand how incredibly great His power is to help those who believe him. It is that same mighty power that raised Christ from the dead...”
Ephesians 1:19-20 (LB)
